Ludwig Wittgenstein’s Philosophical Investigations
An Attempt at a Critical Rationalist Appraisal

This book collects 13 papers that explore Wittgenstein’s philosophy throughout the different stages of his career. The author writes from the viewpoint of critical rationalism. The tone of his analysis is friendly and appreciative yet critical. Of these papers, seven are on the background to the philosophy of Wittgenstein. [...] 2018. XXI, 295 p. An Ethical and Theological Appropriation of Heidegger’s Critique of Modernity
Unframing Existence

This book is at once a deeply learned and original reading of Heidegger and a primary text in its own right. It demonstrates the relevance of Heidegger’s thought in responding to the moral and religious challenges of 21st century existence. It shows that Heidegger’s project can be defended against many criticisms once its existential character is taken seriously. [...] 2018. IX, 235 p. Hardcover

What Does it Mean to be an Empiricist?
Empiricisms in Eighteenth Century Sciences

This book begins with an observation: At the time when empiricism arose and slowly established itself, the word itself had not yet been coined. Hence the central question of this volume: What does it mean to conduct empirical science in early modern Europe? How can we catch the elusive figure of the empiricist? Our answer focuses on the [...] 2018. IX, 297 p. 7 illus. (Boston Studies in the Philosophy and History of Science, Volume 331) Hardcover

Handbook of Legal Reasoning and Argumentation

This handbook addresses legal reasoning and argumentation from a logical, philosophical and legal perspective. The main forms of legal reasoning and argumentation are covered in an exhaustive and critical fashion, and are analysed in connection with more general types (and problems) of reasoning. Accordingly, the subject matter of the handbook divides in three parts. [...] 2018. XXIII, 764 p. 71 illus. Hardcover

Sensory Perceptions in Language, Embodiment and Epistemology

The book illustrates how the human ability to adapt to the environment and interact with it can explain our linguistic representation of the world as constrained by our bodies and sensory perception. The different chapters discuss philosophical, scientific, and linguistic perspectives on embodiment and body perception, [...] 2018. XV, 215 p. 11 illus., 9 illus. in color. Murdoch on Truth and Love

This book reviews Iris Murdoch’s thought as a whole. It surveys the breadth of her thinking, taking account of her philosophical works, her novels and her letters. It shows how she explored many aspects of experience and brought together apparently contradictory concepts such as truth and love. The volume deals with her notions of truth, love, language, morality, politics and her life. [...] 2018. XI, 226 p. (Philosophers in Depth) Hardcover

Structural Rationality and Other Essays on Practical Reason

In this book, the author shows that it is necessary to enrich the conceptual frame of the theory of rational choice beyond consequentialism. He argues that consequentialism as a general theory of rational action fails and that this does not force us into the dichotomy teleology vs deontology. The unity of practical reason can be saved without consequentialism. [...]

The Reception of Paul the Apostle in the Works of Slavoj Žižek

This is the first book devoted entirely to exploring Žižek’s peculiar kind of Paulinism. It seeks to provide a full map of the Marxist philosopher’s interpretations of Paul and critically engage with it. As one of several radical leftists of European critical thought, Žižek embraces the legacy of an ancient apostle in fascinating ways. [...]

Paradox Lost

Logical Solutions to Ten Puzzles of Philosophy

Paradox Lost covers ten of philosophy’s most fascinating paradoxes, in which seemingly compelling reasoning leads to absurd conclusions. The following paradoxes are included: The Liar Paradox, in which a sentence says of itself that it is false. Is the sentence true or false? The Sorites Paradox, in which we imagine removing grains of sand one at a time from a heap of sand. [...]

Truth-Seeking by Abduction

This book examines the philosophical conception of abductive reasoning as developed by Charles S. Peirce, the founder of American pragmatism. It explores the historical and systematic connections of Peirce’s original ideas and debates about their interpretations. Abduction is understood in a broad sense which covers the discovery and pursuit of hypotheses and inference to the best explanation. [...]

Exploring Meinong’s Jungle and Beyond

The Sylvan Jungle - Volume 1

In this first volume of The Sylvan Jungle, the authors present a scholarly edition of the first Chapter of Routley’s 1000-plus page book, “Exploring Meinong’s Jungle.” Going against the Quinean orthodoxy, Routley’s aim was to support Meinong’s idea that we can truthfully refer to Non-Existent and even Impossible Objects, like Superman, [...]

Epistemic Relativism and Scepticism

Unwinding the Braid

This book confronts the threats of epistemic relativism and Pyrrhonian scepticism to analytic philosophy. Epistemic relativists reject absolute notions of knowledge and justification, while sceptics claim that knowledge and justification of any kind are unattainable. [...]

Relational Intentionality: Brentano and the Aristotelian Tradition

This book sheds new light on the history of the philosophically crucial notion of intentionality, which accounts for one of the most distinctive aspects of our mental life: the fact that our thoughts are about objects. Intentionality is often described as a certain kind of relation. [...] 2018. XI, 233 p. (Primary Sources in Phenomenology) Hardcover

Sade’s Philosophical System in its Enlightenment Context

This book connects the philosophy of the Marquis de Sade—one of the most notorious, iconic, and yet poorly-understood figures within the history of European thought—with the broader themes of the Enlightenment. Rather than seeing himself as a mere pornographer, Sade understood himself as continuing the progressive tradition of French Enlightenment philosophy. Sade aspired to be a philosophe. [...] 2018. Ultraglogic as Universal?
The Sylvan Jungle - Volume 4

Ultraglogic as Universal? is a seminal text in non-classical logic. Richard Routley (Sylvan) presents a hugely ambitious program: to use an ‘ultramodal’ logic as a universal key, which opens, if rightly operated, all locks. It provides a canon for reasoning in every situation, including illogical, inconsistent and paradoxical ones, realized or not, possible or not. [...]

The discussion of critical infrastructures is dominated by the use of the interlinked concepts “criticality”, “vulnerability”, “resilience”, and “preparedness and prevention”. These terms can be detected in public discourse as well as in scientific debates. Often, they are used simultaneously in a normative as well as in a descriptive way. […]

Nomic Truth Approximation Revisited

This monograph presents new ideas in nomic truth approximation. It features original and revised papers from a (formal) philosopher of science who has studied the concept for more than 35 years. Over the course of time, the author’s initial ideas evolved. He discovered a way to generalize his first theory of nomic truth approximation, viz. by dropping an unnecessarily strong assumption. Exercises in New Creation from Paul to Kierkegaard
This book unfolds a vision for philosophical theology centered on the practices of the care of the self, the city, and creation. Rooted in Paul’s articulation of the wisdom of the cross, and in conversation with ecological, radical, and political theologies; continental philosophy; and political ecology, it addresses the challenge of injustice and ecological catastrophe. Lost Ecstasy
Its Decline and Transformation in Religion
This book is a study of religious ecstasy, and the ways that it has been suppressed in both the academic study of religion, and in much of the modern practice of religion. It examines the meanings of the term, how ecstatic experience is understood in a range of religions, and why the importance of religious and mystical ecstasy has declined in the modern West. [...]

Etrog
How A Chinese Fruit Became a Jewish Symbol
Every year before the holiday of Sukkot, Jews all around the world purchase an etrog—a lemon-like fruit—to participate in the holiday ritual. In this book, David Z. Moster tracks the etrog from its evolutionary home in Yunnan, China, to the lands of India, Iran, and finally Israel, where it became integral to the Jewish celebration of Sukkot during the Second Temple period. Understanding Religious Violence
Radicalism and Terrorism in Religion Explored via Six Case Studies
This book addresses the problem of religiously based conflict and violence via six case studies. It stresses particularly the structural and relational aspects of religion as providing a sense of order and a networked structure that enables people to pursue quite prosaic and earthly concerns. The book examines how such concerns link material and spiritual salvation into a holy alliance. [...] 2018. X, 228 p. Hardcover $89.99 ISBN 978-3-030-00283-1

Political Theology and Pluralism
Recovering Public Dialogue

Reviving the ancient political wisdom of St. Augustine in combination with insights drawn from contemporary political theorist John Rawls, Joseph Rivera grapples with the polarizing nature of religion in the public square. Political theology, as a discipline, tends to argue that communitarianism remains the only viable political option for religious practitioners in a complex, pluralist society. [...]
