The War Against Civilians
Victims of the “War on Terror” in Afghanistan and Pakistan

This book provides a critical analysis of how the “war on terror” affected the civilian population in Afghanistan and Pakistan. This “forgotten war,” which started in 2001 with the US-led invasion of Afghanistan, has seen more than 212,000 people killed in war-related incidents. Whilst most of the news media shifted their attention to other conflict zones, this war rages on. [...] 2019. XII, 280 p. 1 illus. (Palgrave Studies in Victims and Victimology) Hardcover

Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe

This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio-economic rights concern at a national level. Zimbabwe's widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects. It weakened institutions, especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests, leading to potential human rights violations. However, Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017. [...]
