Sophia
International Journal of Philosophy and Traditions
Editors-in-Chief: P. Bilimoria; P. Hutchings; S. Tagore

- Covers both analytic and continental philosophy of religion
- Considers western and non-western perspectives, including Asian and indigenous cultures
- Offers the contributions of specialists on such topics as feminist and postcolonial philosophy of religion

Since its founding in 1962, the journal Sophia has provided a forum for discussions in philosophy and religion, focusing on the interstices between metaphysics and theological thinking. The discussions encompass the wider ambience of the sciences ('natural' philosophy and human/social sciences), ethical and moral concerns in the public sphere, critical feminist theology and cross-cultural perspectives.

Sophia's cross-cultural and cross-frontier approach is reflected not only in the international composition of its editorial board, but also in its consideration of analytic, continental, Asian and indigenous responses to issues and developments in the field of philosophy of religion.

The move to Springer includes availability on SpringerLink.com of all issues back to Volume 1:1.
